

WHY PAY HOMEMAKER DUES?

University of Kentucky
College of Agriculture,
Food and Environment
Cooperative Extension Service

1

Stay involved in one of the largest, best volunteer organizations in Fleming County.

2

Have access to monthly lessons, either at a club meeting or provided to you by mail.

3

Have the ability to enter items into county, area, and state contests.

4

To be able to attend 2021 club, county, area, and state events.

5

Learn. Lead.
Serve. And,
have FUN!

6

For your children and grandchildren to be eligible for scholarships.

MEMBERSHIP TO THE HOMEMAKERS ORGANIZATION COSTS LESS THAN:

A PIZZA

ONE MONTH OF A STREAMING SERVICE

A NEW BOOK

A NEW SHIRT

FAST FOOD FOR TWO

9

Dues support
Ovarian Cancer research.

10

Your dues keep you a part of our Extension
Homemaker family!

7

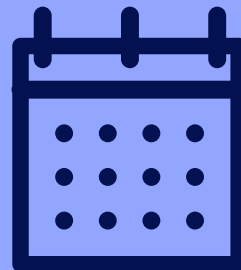

Keep Homemakers
around for future generations by keeping it involved and strong.

8

Enjoy learning opportunities provided via many avenues such as face-to-face; online; etc..

My $8.00 goes to...

$1.00 to Ovarian Cancer
research
$4.00 to KEHA (state dues)
$3.00 to Fleming County
Homemakers for local classes and projects

Dues need to be submitted by November 6

